Karen Booker

Karen graduated from the University of Minnesota with a degree in education and spent several years teaching high school Spanish and French in Minnesota and New York State. She earned a Master's degree in Teaching English as a Second Language and a Ph.D. in Linguistics, with a specialty in American Indian Languages. She has taught at the University of Kansas and the University of Colorado at Boulder. An avid gardener, she currently concentrates on orchids and ivies. She is a judge for the American Hemerocallis Society, and NGC Accredited Master Judge, a Flower Show Schools Instructor of Horticulture and Flower Show Procedure and a Symposium Instructor. Currently, she is a member of the NGC Calendar Committee. In her spare time, Karen enjoys competing with her dogs in agility events.

Judy Binns

Judy served as President of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. from 2011-2013 and is a NGC Accredited Master Flower Show Judge and NGC Flower Show School Design Instructor. She was awarded the National Garden Clubs Member of Honor Award for the South Atlantic Region for All-Around Excellence in 2006 and has served on the National Garden Clubs Board of Directors since 2007. She has exhibited designs in "Fine Arts and Flowers" at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and has given floral design programs and workshops in Virginia as well as North Carolina and West Virginia. She is a member of the Virginia Flower Show Judges Council, Creative Floral Arrangers of the Americas, and National Flower Arrangers.

General Information

Flower Show School Course I, is the first in a series of four courses. This course is a pre-requisite to Courses 2, 3, & 4. Attendance is open to all garden club members and guests.

To receive credit toward becoming an Accredited NGC Flower Show Judge, one must attend the full two-day course at the cost of $130, pass the written exam on Friday, May 4th, be an active NGC garden club member, read The National Gardener, and own the current updated NGC Handbook and any printed changes. The exam is optional for those who are attending for enrichment only.

Front seats will be reserved for students taking the course for credit. Those seats will be numbered and assigned in the order in which paid registration is received. Students must have their attendance card punched at the beginning of each session and may not leave until the conclusion of the class to receive full credit.

The examination consists of 10 questions each in Flower Show Procedure, Horticulture and Design. The tenth question of each section will be taken from the required reading list.

Students should bring a clipboard, pencil and Handbook with updates. Outlines will be emailed upon paid registration to students and hard copies will be provided for all attending on the first day of class.
